

SPEEDEX - THE COMPANY... HOW TO FIND US

For those of you who are new to dealing with Mail Order companies, let us reassure you of our integrity and our intentions.

SPEEDEX was ahead of its time when it was first formed in 1957. In its early years, it was Austin Seven enthusiasts who benefitted from the specialist knowledge and parts provided by the company. With its re-emergence under the same owner in 1983, the company has grown steadily to reach its present prime position in the components and specialist car builders world by utilising its long standing experience. SPEEDEX has gained a first class reputation within the Rally and Race scene for top quality, competitive prices and prompt delivery together with good service and technical back-up - no matter how small or large the requirement. The wealth of experience held by the management of SPEEDEX can only benefit the customer. By knowing the inherent problems of sourcing components, SPEEDEX stock ranges from the necessary nuts and bolts to the more luxury items such as triple layer race suits and Kevlar helmets. SPEEDEX is constantly improving and extending its range in order to maintain its service to customers. We have the reliability, quality and professionalism sought by those enthusiasts who want the best from their investment.

SPEEDEX STAFF ARE ALWAYS READY TO HELP

If you are unsure about any aspect of ordering, size of items, range of products or you cannot find what you need in the catalogue, SPEEDEX staff are only seconds away when you dial
