

The car is designed to suit drivers of virtually any height as the unique pedal assembly varies the leg room quickly and simply. When finished in leather and with a walnut dashboard, the overall feeling inside the cockpit is one of comfort, safety and luxury.

The high quality lined and padded hood ensures the Spyder is not just a fair weather friend. To enjoy the pleasures of open air motoring simply fold down the hood and stow on the rear parcel shelf. It can be easily and quickly repositioned if the weather turns inclement.
